SCHEDULE

30th AUG 2025

Arriving into Bali, you'll get picked up and taken to our hotel. Let's get to know each other over dinner at one of the best sunset spots in Uluwatu!

31st AUG 2025

From yoga to exploring temples, today is about discovering Bali's magic!

1st SEPT 2025

Pick up at 8:30am to catch our boat to Gili Trawangan followed by snorkeling at the famous Gili Meno statues

2nd – 5th SEPT 2025

It's time to get our dive on! Exploring the reefs and the underwater world

6th SEPT 2025

It's time to say our goodbyes, leaving the island and ready to catch our flights back home.

LOGISTICS

FLIGHTS

Flying into Ngurah Rai International Airport (Denpasar), the meetup point will be at the airport's arrivals area. Flights into Bali ideally arrive no later than 2pm on the 30th August. If you wish to arrive the day before, accommodation may be arranged with an extra fee.

CURRENCY

The official currency in Bali is the Indonesian Rupiah, which you'll see written as IDR in currency exchange stores.

Transactions are conducted in Rupiah. Most major credit cards are accepted at hotels, restaurants, and shops, but it's a good idea to carry some cash for small vendors or markets.

VISAS

Most countries will need a visa for Indonesia. The Visa regulations depend on your nationality, your passport. It does not matter where you live (residency).

However, visa policies can change, and it's crucial to check for the latest information from official sources.

YOUR HOST MARIAM AL SAIF

Having retired from the corporate world 6 years ago, Mariam's new office is underwater where she likes to spend most of her time. Having taken over 100 guests on dive trips, she believes that her trips are all inclusive. MER is a community for divers who are like-minded and want to dive together.

All trips are organized and handled from A to Z through her and are especially arranged to provide the best possible dive experience. You will dive with the best operators and learn the most about the region where you are diving.
